

Agenda for Workshop
Florida Oceans Day, March 10, 2010
Florida's Ocean Economy: Planning for Future Uses of Ocean Spaces
Old Senate Chambers, Historic Capitol Building, 2d Floor, 10:30 am- 12:30 pm

Purpose of Workshop: To discuss two themes with Florida Stakeholders:

(1) Planning for Uses of Florida's Oceans and

(2) The Ocean Economy

in the context of possible choices for developing uses of Florida's oceans

- I. Welcome to Workshop (David McDonald)
- II. Introduction to Workshop (Jim Murley)
- III. Introduction of Plenary Speaker (John Ogden)
- IV. Plenary Speaker: Dr. Charles Ehler, UNESCO
- V. Demonstration of Resources Assessment (Gil McRae, Florida Marine Research Institute)
- VI. Panel Discussion

Laura Geselbracht, The Nature Conservancy, Moderator

William Sloger, CSA International

Lee Edmiston, Florida Dept. of Environmental Protection-CAMA

Dave Mica, Florida Petroleum Council

David McDonald, Florida Ports Council

Rob Kramer, International Game Fish Association

Janet Bowman, The Nature Conservancy

Jerry Sansom, Organized Fishermen of Florida
- VII. Wrap Up and Adjourn (Jim Murley)